

DU Winterfest Info

Clubs and Coaches,

We are so very excited to see you all at the 2023 Winterfest Classic here in Denver! We wanted to send out a few important pieces of information for you to share with your gymnasts and coaches.

Please allow plenty of time to allow your gymnasts, coaches and guests to purchase admission, check-in and find your gym. Since we are using 3 different gyms in 3 different locations, we encourage you to allow for traffic, parking and purchasing admission. Above is a map of the gyms, the parking and the campus. Lot L is the best lot, which is a parking garage, and is located the closest to the venue.

1. Gymnast and Coaches-Check-in for the meet will be found on the main concourse of The Ritchie Center. We have attached a map for you. All three gym locations are in the same building however, you will need to step outside to reach the Gates Fieldhouse and the Practice gym. Please note it is very important for both coaches and gymnasts to check-in prior to their session beginning. Check-in will begin at 7:00am on Friday January 27th, 2023.

2. Gymnasts will be given their gymnast pass and their paper ticket for the DU vs. Oklahoma women's gymnastics Meet at check in. The tickets are preassigned seats. If you are wanting to ensure that you sit next to a friend, please check in at the same time!

WE CANNOT REPLACE LOST TICKETS SO PLEASE BE CAREFUL WITH YOUR TICKET. The meet will take place on Sunday at 1:45 pm. Melissa Kutcher Rinehart, the head coach for the University of Denver, has asked us to let you know this is a "BLACKOUT" meet. That means please wear all black in support of the meet. If your gymnasts are unable to attend the meet, please let us know at gymnast check-in so we can donate the ticket.

3. IMPORTANT-Admissions for spectators for all sessions will be found on the main concourse of The Ritchie Center near Magness arena. Parents can purchase a single session wristband for $15 per session or a weekend pass for $50 for all sessions EXCEPT the college meet

We can't wait to see you all next week!
